WORLD HISTORY AND CULTURE

Viewed from the outside, history and culture have a tendency to be seen as names and dates. But viewed from the inside, great leaders are seen to be only human. Great events are often simple occurrences that take on importance through the hindsight of

MEN OF OUR TIMES: MUSSOLINI

As dictators go, Il Duce may have been one of the most insubstantial leaders the world has ever seen. Benito Mussolini presented a public image of

A TRAVELER'S JOURNAL

This is not a series for people who see the world from the back of a tourist bus. This is a series for upscale, culturally aware voyagers who immerse themselves in the lands they visit. It is hosted by natives or knowledgeable "outsiders" who know these places as they know their own hearts, who can show us a country's soul as well.

Actress Diana Rigg (The Avengers) proudly brings us on a tour of the rugged west coast of her native Scotland. Expatriate best-selling novelist Gore Vidal takes us beyond the famous palaces of Venice to the infamous pleasure houses. The one-hour episodes of A Traveler's Journal spend as much time exploring the political and artistic aspects of the country as the sights. An emphasis on cultural currents is balanced with exceptional photography and personal experiences. The result: a sense of what it's really like to live in a foreign place, designed for people who truly appreciate the history and culture of their destinations.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

J.P. DONLEAVY'S IRELAND

From a perfectly pulled pint of ale in Cavanaugh's pub in Dublin to the ruins of the cottage in Kilcoole where he began his beloved million-copy bestseller The Ginger Man, J.P. Donleavy brings us on a journey into the very heart and soul of Ireland. Donleavy is the irreverent Irish-American playwright known for his wry commentaries on Ireland. Donleavy will share his memories, idiosyncratic insights and personal history with us against a backdrop of the emerald beauty that is Ireland. We'll visit his alma mater Trinity College during registration. We'll travel to Cork and Kerry, the rocky cliffs of Galway and the fields and farms of Lonford. And we'll witness a historic adaptation of The Ginger Man at the Gaiety Theatre in Dublin, forty years after it was closed on its third night for being too risqué.

SCOTLAND WITH DIANA RIGG

Scotland. Wild. Ancient. Rugged. It takes a native to penetrate this forbidding and close countryside peopled by the descendants of highlanders and wild men of the woods. Explore the mysteries of Castle Culzean in Southwest Scotland with Scottish native Diana Rigg. Get to know the Scottish countryside, architecture and people. And visit a selection of properties owned by the National Trust for Scotland in the Highlands. Over the course of eight episodes, we'll see a side of Scotland usually known only to those who live there.

VIDAL IN VENICE

The Venetians created an empire whose power and influence lasted 500 years. Long after their decline, their city stands out for its romantic canals, architecture and culture. Best-selling author Gore

Vidal takes us on a journey of discovery, beginning with the historical origins of the Venetian Republic. By the time we're done, Vidal will have given us an understanding of the art, music and architecture that form a unique legacy.

In addition to celebrity

SO YOU WANT TO BE IN BASEBALL

Spring means baseball. And what better way to start the series than with So You Want To Be In Baseball? Hosted by Cy Young Award-winning pitcher Jim Palmer, So You Want To Be In Baseball shows kids dozens of ways their love for the game can get them into the action. Do you compare ERA's and RBI's? Then a job as a baseball statistician might be your bag. How about designing a ballpark? Architect Joseph Spear talks about his

SO YOU WANT TO BE IN THE MOVIES

Not everybody in the movies ends up in front of the camera. There are gaffers, grips, best boys and gophers. There are directors and producers, electricians and make-up people. Set designers, script writers, photographers. Camera operators. Location scouts. The list goes on and on and on. This episode of So You Want To Be In... will talk to real people who've made it in the toughest town in America: Hollywood.

SO YOU WANT TO BE IN MUSIC

There are as many careers as there are kinds of music. And many different ways to participate. Musician. Composer. Roadie. Impresario. Opera singer. Manager. Booking agent. Sound engineer. Jingle writer. This episode of So You Want To
